3. NEWS AND NOTES

- a. Jose "el Negro" Casas was interviewed in the 8/1/91 issue of OVACIONES but there was nothing new in it other than apparently in Japan they have a nickname for him and it's "Rumbanba."

B. EMLL

1. RESULTS

- a. 7/27/91 at el Audetorio de San Luis Potosi in San Luis Potosi, San Luis Potosi, Mexico

1. Mexican National Parejas Championship Match: Champions Tony Arce and el Vulcano defeated challengers el Solar II and el Cachorro Mendoza two falls to one.

- b. 7/30/91 at el Audetorio de San Martin Texmelucan in San Martin Texmelucan, Puebla, Mexico

1. Mexican National Middleweight Championship Match: Champion Octagon defeated challenger el Satanico two falls to one. What a fraud to pass off el Satanico as a middleweight.

- c. 7/31/91 at el Cortijo bull ring in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

1. Octagon, el Dandy, and el Villano IV (that's correct, el Villano IV, this was a mixed card, too) defeated Kung Fu, Fuerza Guerrera, and el Caballo Loco two falls to zero via disqualification when el Caballo Loco not only fouled but also took the mask off Octagon to end the second fall. Octagon challenged el Caballo Loco to a mask versus mask match, but Loco asked only for a singles revenge match instead.
2. Caballera contra caballera: Midgets: tecnico el Pequeno Goliath defeated rudo el Gran Nikolay two falls to one. The winning move was a senton from the top rope. I am almost certain this was a cheap attempt by the UWA to steal the thunder from the much bigger stip match the EMLL had two nights later.
3. Rambo and el Babe Face I (UWA) defeated Popitekus and Alimana (EMLL) two falls to one. Rated a good match.
4. CHamaco Ayala and Laway Star defeated Siniestro and Mokambo two falls to one.
5. el Loco Valentino defeated el Tigre Tatudado two falls to one in another match rated as good.

2. CARDS

a. 8/1/91 at la Arena Isabel in Cuernavaca, Morelos, Mexico

i. 8/3/91 at Urupuan, Michoacan, Mexico

1. Tony Arce, el Vulcano, and Emilio Charles junior versus Platino, la Aguila Solitaria, and el Pantera II.

Also appearing will be local guys on the under card.

j. 8/4/91 at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

1. Ladies' Battle Royal: Zuleyma, Lola "Dinamita" Gonzales, la Sirenita, Lady Apache, Janteth, Selene, la Super Estrella, la Quira, la Diabolica, Maria del Angel, la Pantera, Surena, Tania la Guerrerililla, Venus, Karla Ivonne, la Coralilla, and Lady Star.

3. NEWS AND NOTES

a. A major rag in Mexico (similar to the Star or Globe here) has a huge cover story in its 8/13/91 from a gentleman (apparently an EMLL front office employee) who calims in public that Octagon made homosexual advance towards him. I lost my copy of the magazine but I'll get another soon and fax it to you (the article not the whole magazine) but it was taken so seriously by the EMLL that they had FIVE DIFFERENT people issue SEPARATE denunciations: Antonio Pena (representing CMLL), Juan Herrera (representing EMLL), Vicky Palacios (the "fiancee of Konnan and ex-queen of Lucha Libre), Pierroth junior, and a spokesman for the movie studio Producciones del Sur where Octagon is making all these movies. Must be seious (and maybe even true) to have that much artillery to respond so quickly.

b. A new trio has been formed in EMLL. It's a death gimmick. It consists of el Cadaver de Ultratumba, el Arcangel de la Muerte, and Sancara. Sancara has been said to have been wrestling for five years plus, but I've never heard of him.

c. In a further effort to get him over, la Mascara Sagrada announced he would give away a free autographed mask to the winner of a contest sponsored by OVACIONES (just a write in on a 3 by 5 card contst).

d. Okinawa will hit Mexico City soon. He's been working northern Mexico lately.

e. el Zata Angel II debuts this weekend, joining el Zata Angel I, who is just returning from a lay off due to a minor injury.

f. The Blue Panther got a nice notice in the 8/1/91 OVACIONES as a "maestro" or teacher of lucha libre at even so young an age.
